Re: United States of America v. Felix Sater
Case No. : 98CR1101 (ILG)
Our File No. : 07765.00155

Dear Judge Glasser:

I am just writing to state my understanding of the court's scheduling order. Should I be incorrect, I request that I be so advised.

On the record of the recent hearing on June 21st, Ms. Moore was given until June 28th to submit her memorandum of law, and we were given until July 9th to respond. By letter dated June 25th – which was so-ordered by the court – Ms. Moore's time was extended to July 1st, and we were directed to submit our brief "a week later."

It is my understanding that "a week later" means July 16th, i.e., a week after July 9th, when our response was originally due. Otherwise, "a week later" would mean that our brief would actually be due on July 8th, if measured as a week from receipt of Ms. Moore's paper – which would make it due earlier (not later) than the court had originally ordered.

If I am in any way mistaken, I'd ask that the court clarify when our response would be due.

Respectfully yours,

WILSON, ELSE, MOSKOWITZ, EDELMAN &amp; DICKER LLP
